Shimoga District

To,

L. Anantaswami Rao Esquire,
Secretary to the Government
Muzrai Department.

Sir,

Referring to your docket No. 919 of the 8th Ultimo, I have the honor to state that 10 maunds of 5th class Sandalwood is issued annually to the Kudli Sringeri Matt under the authority of the Sanad granted by His Highness the late Maharaja Krishnaraja Wadayar Bahadur No. III and letter No. 52 dated 9th March 1837 from the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner to the Superintendent of the Nagar Division. The Matt's title to sandalwood had not been noted in the Final Register of Ready money inams till May 1906, when, on receipt of Inam Superintendent's docket No. 160 of the 11th Idem, (Copy enclosed for ready reference an entry was made in the Register. It will be noted that the Inam Superintendent has confirmed the issue of 4th class sandalwood instead of 5th class wood which was issued hitherto.

2. The submission of District Muzrai Budgets was discontinued by Circular order No. 1106-12 of 22nd February 1898. This Office Muz 20-92 cannot say whether the grant of Sandalwood to the Kudli Sringeri Matt is included in the Provincial Budget under 19 Muzrai 13 Sandal wood allowances."

In this connection, I beg to point out that the Sandalwood allowances made to the Muzrai Institutions named below have not been noted in the Final Registers of Ready money inams received from the Superintendent of Inam Settlements in 1882.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant
